

Indiana's Recovery High School

Hope Academy

When students need help, they can rely on Hope Academy. This tuition-free charter school provides educational excellence and an achievement-oriented curriculum while promoting sobriety and personal growth.

Hope Academy is for high school students who have received primary treatment for alcohol/drug addiction, are in recovery or engaged in a recovery-based lifestyle. As one of the first nationally accredited recovery high schools in the country, Hope Academy utilizes evidence-based practices to provide a supportive community to maintain sobriety while earning a Core 40 high school diploma.

Student Expectations:

- Strive for academic excellence
- Remain drug and alcohol free
- Actively participate in a recovery program
- Attend 12-step meetings and have a sponsor
- Abide by recovery values of the school

Academics Available:

- Core 40 and Academic Honors diplomas
- Recovery and wellness courses
- Dual credit courses
- Credit recovery opportunities

Recovery Support:

- Recovery coaching before and after school
- Relapse prevention and coaching
- Restorative discipline
- Parent education and support group
- Sober peer network
